RE: A TRIP TO STRATHMORE UNIVERSITY

First and foremost is to say thank you for the golden opportunity that most of us would not have received if it were not for you. Most of us did not have a clue of what a university is. but now we know almost everything.

I myself saw the day very nice since it was not only fantastic but also educative. I got to learn different courses studied in Strathmore University and the requirements to study them. I am also proud to have seen new facilities and equipment like interlocking chalkboards, biometric - opened doors and an elevator.

I am also proud of having eaten the mouth-watering delicacy at Strathmore and the sense that I was eating in the same hall with great people made me feel like I wanted to be like them. Meeting great people who humbled themselves and gave us a warm welcome made me amazed. Their discipline challenged me. I don't think that I have ever kept my school clean like those guys did.

I was also challenged by all the great people who made speeches in the SBS2 room. I am also happy because I am sure that I am meeting my individual mentor very soon.

I also enjoyed being in the part of Nairobi with tall
