Dear Sir,

REF: WHAT I LEARNT AT STRATHMORE

It is with great joy that I write this letter to you. I hope you are fine as I am. This letter is to update you on what I learnt during my visit to Strathmore University. The session was exiting, fun, I don't even have the words to explain it was just superb. We started with Titus, a lecturer in Strathmore. He talked about his life growing up in the lake side. I learnt that no matter where you grow up, everything is possible since all dreams are valued and valid.

He taught me that hardwork, determination, hope and discipline together with hardwork result to success. He taught me on ways to gain self confidence is by participating in sports and being in the choir. I learnt not to lose hope no matter the situation since God is always in control since he is the same yesterday, today and forever.

The second speaker was Michael Babu, he taught about being happy all the time and being cheerful while
